

door. Duffin had Mrs. Baer arrested on charge of assault—on Weymer. Weymer went to get something to eat.

Colored Progressive Club of Illinois formed last night at meeting at 3333 S. State st.

The Tribune thought for a while that it was going to own the new Progressive party and run it any way it felt like.

But since then the Tribune has discovered that Col. Roosevelt has a few ideas of his own as to how the new party should be run.

It looks like the Progressive National convention is going to be bigger—in delegates at least—than either of the old party conventions.

Frank Branke thought representing himself as agent of Salvation Army fine scheme to get money. Frank will spend the next year in the Bridewell.

Francesco Mistrello, 3, 846 Blue Island av., run down and killed by Blue Island av. street car while playing near her home.

Cragin police investigating death of Joseph Bolsinger, 2134 N. 41st court. Said to have been pushed off street car Wednesday.

Judge Scully allowed continuance in 7 cases growing out of disappearance of Catherine O'Brien, 16, 5145 S. State st.

Judge Scully said he wasn't satisfied with the lack of prosecution in the case and criticised the state's attorney's office.

Ray Havens, owner of summer resort, Mishawaka, Ind., died of blood poisoning in gunshot wound at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

His 8-year-old nephew shot him with "unloaded" gun.

Prominent Wilmette woman called on police to arrest book agent who was annoying residents in her aristocratic neighborhood.

Police investigated. Found book agent was selling Bibles. Told him to go right ahead, and put Bibles in as many Wilmette homes as possible.

After the disclosures of Mrs. Louise DeKoven Brown as to the kind of orgies that the sassiety women of Wilmette indulge in, one can understand the feeling of the police in the matter.

William Jennings Bryan thinks Taft's speech of acceptance of the Republican nomination, the funniest thing he's heard in many a day.

Burglar got away with $100 worth of jewelry from home of Mrs. L. Barnes, 1412 E. 54th place.

Abandoned baby boy, about one month old, found outside millinery store of Mrs. J. R. Gray, 3208 Indiana ave.

Burglar entered home of Mrs. Esther Meyer, 2518 W. Division st., but was frightened away by Mrs. Meyer.

Mrs. Mary Vesely, 2238 Fulton st., spanked her 10-year-old daughter for disobedience Thursday night. Mary has not been seen since.

F. W. Morse has resigned as vice president and general manager of Chicago & Alton. Pres. Worthington going to hold down both jobs besides his own.